

TiE hosts “The Largest gathering of CleanTech Companies in India” on Thursday December 17th, 2009 at Marriott Convention Centre in Hyderabad.

The conference is designed for you. We know you are busy and so we are making sure that you get to learn about real businesses in the CleanTech space as quickly as you can – all across the span of a day. In CleanTech its time to get over the rhetoric and get down to business!

If you are an investor seeking opportunities in this sector this is a conference you cannot miss. This is the most efficient way of getting to know the best companies operating in this sector. If you are looking for business or employment opportunities in this space this is India’s most focused networking event in this sector .If you are an incubator in this field this is the best place to showcase your ventures and network with businesses
